NEWARK, N.J., May 4.—The jury brought in a verdict of manslaughter against the Consolidated Tractor company for killing 2 year old William Schenk by one of the company's electric cars. Try it and be convinced. It won't disappoint. Free Trial Bottles at McMonagle & Rogers's drug store.

He reported what he had said in his public speech that no other state in the nation was so well off for an income tax. He also called attention to the fact that the demands of the Democratic party for free raw material had been ignored and said that wool was required to stand alone out of all the lists representing the fruits of the earth. He charged him that the income tax had been retained for

A RIOT AVERTED.

Striking Italian Railroad Laborers Return at the Old Rate.

WILLSBORO, Pa., May 4.—The strike of the Italian railroad laborers on the new extension of the Buffalo and Susquehanna road is over, and about 600 of the men resumed work yesterday. Wednesday 300 of the Italians, armed with guns, pistols, knives and clubs, marched up the road toward Cenix and threatened to destroy the town. The authorities were alarmed for the dusky foreigners might take a notion to carry out their threat, for they had a carload of dynamite in their possession at the time.

But for the coolness of Constable Black there would have undoubtedly been serious trouble. With a posse of fifteen or twenty well armed men he halted the strikers at the outskirts of the village. Three of the ring-leaders were at once arrested and locked up. The force then became demoralized, and retreated to hold a council of war. Deputy Sheriff Vall had a posse of thirty picked men ready to assist the constable in case of emergency.

Wednesday night the contractors informed the strikers that they could resume work at $1 a day or leave the work for others to take their places. Sixty men accepted the term, and about twenty-five men were paid off and discharged.

The strike was originated by a gang of workmen who were induced to come on from New York city by a peddler, who told them they were to receive $1.25 a day when the men found that the interpreter had deceived them. They attacked him and would have killed him had he not sought the protection of the officers.

To Change Jersey's Congressional Districts.

TRAVERSE CITY, May 4.—Senator Stokes introduced a bill changing the congressional districts of the state. The proposed new districts are made up as follows: First district—Cass, Calumet, Marquette, Gladwin, and Saginaw counties; Second district—Antrim, Manistee, Benzie, and Leelanau counties; Third district—Somerset, Middlesex, and Monmouth; Fourth district—Saginaw, Warren, Huron, and Huron; Fifth district—Pawosac and Berrien; Sixth district—City of Newark and township of East Orange; Seventh district—County of Hudson, except the city of Bayonne; Eighth district—Union county, Bayonne, and all of Essex county, except Newark and East Orange. The bill providing for the annexation of the town of Harts and Kearny to the city of Newark passed both houses.

Clover Fields Destroyed.

HRVATISDORF, Pa., May 4.—A strange green worm, measuring from a fourth to a half inch in length, has lately made its appearance in this county among the fields of growing clover. They appear in countless numbers, and when once they touch a clover field they continue in their destructive work until every vestige of the blossoms and leaves are eaten up. In Springfield, Tell, Clay and Penn townships whole fields of clover have been destroyed, and the farmer is in despair.

Prohibition Nominees.

CHESTER, Pa., May 4.—Delaware county Prohibitionists had their convention yesterday and nominated the following ticket: President judge Lewis D. Vail of Philadelphia, congressman, W. H. Barry of Chester; assemblyman, L. Newton Farn, George S. Larnell and John D. Burn, prothonotary, W. S. Chalfant of Medina; commissioners, B. D. Ayers, Jr., of Chester; directors of the poor, Z. M. Bower of Chester and Benjamin Johnson of Irwin.

A BIG NEWSPAPER CHANGES HANDS.

CHICAGO, May 4.—The rumors that have been floating about for some days of change in the proprietorship of The Inter-Ocean are verified. Mr. H. H. Baldwin, who for three years has been publisher of the paper and proprietor of the majority of the stock disposed of his entire interest to William Penn Nixon, who has been editor for more than eighteen years. It is understood that he received about $400,000.

In Senate and House.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—The time of the Senate yesterday was taken up in speeches by Senators Chandler and Quay, the former with an impromptu speech of an hour, and the latter with a continuation of his prepared speech. The Democrats charged that Senator Quay was filibustering against the tariff bill. The non-deferred tax due to the consideration of the river and harbor bill.

Fatal Injury by a Bomb.

FRANCE, May 4.—Another explosion of dynamite occurred last night at the residence of Dr. Benson, in the Rue de la Paix. The front of the building was shattered and Dr. Benson and his wife terribly injured. The doctor cannot recover. The shock also caused breakage of windows in the houses in the vicinity. There is no clew to the person who caused the outrage.

New Yorkers Protest Against the Senate's Voting on the Tariff Bill.

NEW YORK, May 4.—A mass meeting was held in Cooper Union last night to protest against the dilatoriness of the senate in passing upon the Wilson bill. Ex-Secretary Fairchild presided. All was not harmony at the meeting, and the income tax question was what started the dividing of the way. The storm broke when Frederic R. Conard took issue with James C. Carter and roundly denounced the income tax measure as bad, dishonest and undemocratic. One half of the large crowd hissed and interrupted this expression of opinion, the others cheered and applauded, and hurried back the epithets applied to Mr. Conard by his opponents from the body of the hall.

An old man jumped up, shook his fist at Mr. Conard on the platform and shouted: "We were paying the taxes while you people were raking it."

At this point there was tumult. A chorus of "Put him out" burst forth, and every one jumped up, held a dozen policemen rushed up, and seized the old man, carrying him to the rear of the hall. Confusion reigned for some minutes.

Finally Mr. Conard put every one in good humor by saying that he had as the income tax was he was willing to swallow it for the sake of the tariff reduction.

James C. Carter delivered the principal speech of the evening. He defended the income tax as the most just and equitable form of taxation. There were manifestations of approval and disapproval when he said this, a foretelling of the tumult that broke forth later when Mr. Conard took the opposite stand to Mr. Carter. Mr. Carter also denounced Senator Hill and Murphy for their attitude toward the Wilson bill.

A committee appointed to confer with Kelly found the general in a mood to accept almost any proposition.

"If I am furnished railroad transportation to the Mississippi," he said, "I will accept it glibly. I had expected to go by way of Cincinnati. If Mr. Kelly will take a boat, if we can get him to the river, I have hopes that we may be able to get him out of the state."

Will be Crippled for Life.

CANTON, N. J., May 4.—James Benny, the 10-year-old Camden boy who was tortured at the stake by his dimwitted reading playmate about two months ago, is now out of danger, but he will be crippled and a cripple for life. His right hand will probably have to be amputated, as the skin grafting on that member and the arm has not been entirely successful. The physicians have a number of volunteers who will give up pieces of their skin for grafting on the little sufferer. One of the volunteers is little Johnny Dooley, who, with the other two boys torturers of Benny, is locked up in the county jail awaiting trial. It is hardly likely that the boys will be severely punished, as they did not burn Benny with malicious intent.

Fatal Wreath by a Reacherer.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., May 4.—As a number of employees of the Henry colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal company were walking through the gangway a runaway car struck them. Three men were fatally injured. Anthony Buff, an expert miner and a township school director, had four ribs broken, and sustained internal injuries. The doctors say he cannot live.

The other injured man is a Pole named Nolaski. Two other men escaped with slight bruises.

Wandered Away and Died.

CROWN POINT, N. Y., May 4.—Scorcher yesterday found on the mountainside the dead body of John Sibley, a well known carpenter of this city, who wandered from his home on last Sunday morning while suffering from temporary aberration of mind. It is a revolution of a starving people. "What would you have done had you been in Coxey's place?" "What would I have done? I should have gone up those steps into the Capitol—or I would never have tried it. But I would not have tried to go into the Capitol building until I had a force behind me that could easily overcome all the police in Washington."

The New Enganders at New York.

NEW YORK, May 4.—The Swift and Fitzgerald contingent, numbering forty men, of the New England Industrial army, arrived by steamer from New Haven last evening. The leaders were informed that the men would not be allowed to march through the streets if they unfurled any flags. It is a revolution of a starving people. "What would you have done had you been in Coxey's place?" "What would I have done? I should have gone up those steps into the Capitol—or I would never have tried it. But I would not have tried to go into the city they will all be vaccinated.

Randall's Hungry Army.

VALPARAISO, Ind., May 4.—General Randall and his army left their way in Indiana's zigzag roads, and as a result camped last night in the woods on a hillside two miles from Hobart, Ind. The men are hungry and drenched to the skin. They had no shelter beyond bare trees. Citizens of Valparaiso have decided to refuse the army entertainment. If they attempt to enter the city they will all be vaccinated.

Coxey's Army Abandoned.

PROVIDENCE, Mass., May 4.—Holmes' naval expedition, which intended to sail to Washington as an auxiliary of Coxey's army, has been abandoned. Coxey's re-occupation of Washington has effectively cooled the ardor of the men. Admiral Holmes is unable to collect the money subscribed to further the movement, and has lost out. "Take him, a fitting out at auction."

Another Tragedy.

TORONTO, May 4.—A man, a hired of the Canadian Pacific railway, was found dead in his room at the Canadian Pacific Hotel, and the police are investigating the case. The man was found lying on the floor of his room.

FRIDAY, MAY 4, 1896.

Andrew Wagner, aged seventy-eight, and Hannah Wedge, aged seventy-six, who were married, yesterday, at Bath, N. Y., bent the road for long engagements, their betrothal dating back fifty-two years.

The Jersey City police claim to have evidence that the Western Union Telegraph Company has been encouraging the "green goods" business for the sake of the revenue derived from the messages which pass between the swindlers and their victims, resort having been had to the wires since it had become too risky to use the mail. It is now proposed to indict the company for "aiding and abetting crime."

Henrietta Ansley, ninety-five years old, who for three years has lived alone in one little room in a New York tenement, was evicted, yesterday, because she was one dollar in arrears with her rent. The sight of the bent form of the old woman, sitting amid her meagre store of household goods on the sidewalk, moved the sympathy of passers by and she was given enough money to pay her rent for many months to come. That the eviction proved a blessing is disguise does not, however, alter the fact that the man who instituted the proceedings against the woman was a brute.

Rev. Theodore Guyler, one of Brooklyn's most eminent divines, who is reported to be a clear thinker and close reasoner on theological matters, gave a striking illustration, yesterday, of the proneness of clergy men, when dealing with worldly matters, to prevaricate from honest-to-ness. In an address before an anti-women suffrage meeting, he began by saying that he had asked a group of six women if they wanted the ballot, and five had answered no but one yes. This prevarication, he assumed, would hold good of women generally, and having thus laid dead and strong the foundations of his argument, he had no difficulty in demonstrating, to his own satisfaction at least, that men had no right to force the ballot into the unwilling hands of their mothers, wives and sisters.

In view of Senator Hill's refusal to agree to any compromise on the tariff bill that includes the income tax provision, and his determination to fight it to the end, the language of the resolutions adopted by the business men of New York, at their meeting, last night, are especially timely: "While we desire that the income tax clause should be struck out of the pending bill, we do not resent its existence for the vote of any Democrat against the bill as a whole, and we demand that every Democratic Senator and Representative vote for the repeal of the McKinley law, the emancipation of our commerce from the burdensome and the abolition of taxes upon the raw materials of our manufacturers, income tax or 'no income tax.' In the face of that resolution, New York's senior Senator, cannot claim that he is representing the sentiments and wishes of his constituents in opposing tariff reform because of the income tax clause in the pending measure.

Why the West Point Cadet Wear a Gray Uniform.

From the New York Tribune.
The question has often been asked why the Army cadets at West Point wear a gray uniform, while the uniform of the Army is blue. The origin of this distinction dates back to the war of 1812-14, when the Community-General of the Army could not procure the blue cloth required for General Winfield Scott's brigade, and so they were clad in gray. So distinguished was the conduct of that brigade at Lundy's Lane and Chippawa that when, after the war of 1812, a reorganization of the West Point Military Academy was made, out of compliment to General Scott and his friends, the uniform of the corps of cadets was changed from blue to gray.

Messrs. W. Brown and G. O. De-Witt, two engineers, were in town, to-day, making an inventory of all the company's property. They visit all depots and stores and set the smallest article belonging to the company comes there. About every four years such an inventory is made.

SCOTTSDALE, Pa., May 4.—A serious shot, in which at least ten persons were shot, occurred this morning at McKee's coal works. Striking miners made a raid on the works for the purpose of driving out the men.
Assistant Superintendent White
and several deputies fired on them, wounding several, one of them a woman. Strikers becoming infuriated made a rush for White, who continued firing. When the strikers reached him he was beaten unmercifully.
A woman gashed his head twice with a hickory and it is feared his injuries are fatal. The strikers were all Kangarillas.

COXEY ET AL. IN COURT.
Their Lawyers argue that the Law Under which they were arrested is void.

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 4.—Coxey, Brown and Jones were placed on trial in police court, to-day, charged with violating the United States statutes by unlawfully displacing banners or devices in the Capitol grounds, and breaking shrubs and plants there. The court was crowded.

The lawyer for the defense moved to quash the information against the protesters on the ground that the law, under which they were charged, was void because it prohibited the constitutional rights of petition for redress.

COXEYITES STEAL A TRAIN.
By United Press.

TACOMA, May 4.—About 200 Tacoma and Seattle industrialists seized a Northern Pacific east bound freight train, near Orting, last night, and compelled the trainmen to let them run the train. The train then proceeded on its way. It is supposed to be the train stealers' intention to turn back to Orting, and take the main body of industrialists, about 2,000 in all. United States Marshals have started in pursuit.

A Great American Editor.

One of the greatest editors ever known is Charles A. Dana, of the New York Sun. A splendid recent portrait of him, together with the story of his adventure in the newspaper field and all that he has accomplished, appears in "America's Greatest Men and Women," the remarkable work now being given to the public. Nothing like it has ever been published, and when the series is complete there will be little left for publication regarding the prominent men and women in America, to-day.
It is most interesting and curious,
something that should certainly be in every library, something that is as attractive as it is of value in a practical way.

It appears in sixteen parts, of eleven pages each, upon each page a splendid portrait, 9 by 14 inches in dimensions. Send one copy accompanied by ten cents to the office of the Adams and Muncor and none other like it, and it can be obtained in no other way.
